For Immediate Release

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif./EWorldWire/June 29, 2007 --- HAND in HAND custom jewelry design was voted "Best Kept Secret" by the readers of San Francisco Magazine for their 2007 "Best of the Bay Area" awards. The announcement was made at the 7th annual San Francisco Magazine Best of the Bay Area party and fundraiser held on Thursday, June 28.

"It is an incredible honor and privilege to be singled out as the 'Best of the Bay Area' by San Francisco Magazine's readers," says Kim Stiglitz, director of marketing, HAND in HAND. "We are so grateful to everyone who voted for us, and we're looking forward to celebrating this fantastic achievement."

The "Best Kept Secret" is a unique category in the competition because it is the only one that spans across all business types in the Bay Area.

"I'm absolutely thrilled, yet completely humbled by this tremendous accomplishment," says Marc Stiglitz, founder and head designer, HAND in HAND. "It's always an incredible feeling when your clients view what you do and how you do it as being unique and special to the point that they're willing to take time out of their busy day to recognize all the effort we put towards exceeding their every expectation."

"For us, it's especially meaningful that in today's mass market society where it's almost impossible to be individual, that our clients truly value the special feeling of having something that's personally meaningful and exclusively theirs, especially when it's often designed to commemorate their lives' most special celebrations."
