For Immediate Release

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif./EWorldWire/Nov. 9, 2007 --- HAND in HAND custom jewelry design is thrilled to announce that four one-of-a-kind original wedding/engagement rings will be featured in 500 Wedding Rings: Celebrating a Classic Symbol of Commitment. This new release from Lark Books will be on shelves in January 2008. This breathtaking book showcases a stunning collection of contemporary, handmade wedding bands and engagement rings for men and women. Masterfully set diamonds stand alongside conceptual designs that reflect a cutting-edge approach that transcend the run-of-the-mill gold wedding band.

Creative jewelers from around the world submitted designs to a juried panel of industry leaders who selected pieces for inclusion.

"It's an incredible privilege to have our designs selected and recognized as four of the best 500 pieces of wearable art by the design community and to have our work included amongst the other amazing artists' creations in this book," says Marc Stiglitz, HAND in HAND's founder and head designer. "It's not only a phenomenal accomplishment for us as a company, but more importantly, it's icing on the cake for our amazing clients. To have such a distinction bestowed upon their one-of-kind engagement rings and wedding bands only enhances their overall value and mystique."

"This kind of press is priceless for a boutique, custom fine jewelry design firm like HAND in HAND," states Kim Stiglitz, director of marketing. "We are already well known for our stunning, personally meaningful, one-of-a-kind designs and this stunning book will expose us to even more consumers who are looking for truly one-of-a-kind in a world of mass production."
